

2016 APA CALIFORNIA STATE PLANNING CONFERENCE CONFERENCE FOR STUDENTS

Are you a student interested in attending the APA State Conference in Pasadena? The conference will be held from Saturday, October 22nd to Tuesday, October 25th at the Pasadena Convention Center. Have you been wanting to get involved in your local APA Chapter but just haven't taken the leap? Here is some information to help you get started and also some tips on how to make the most of the APA State Conference.

ATTEND STUDENT DAY (10/22)

Student Day is on Saturday, October 22nd! Not only is it FREE, but it's complete with sessions curated just for students! You can check out the sessions HERE. You don't need to register for the entire conference to attend Student Day. Register as an APA Member Student or Non-Member Student, whichever is applicable, then just select the Student Day event (which will show no cost).

REGISTER FOR THE CONFERENCE

Although Student Day will offer tons of great material, the regular conference sessions will cover the latest and greatest in the planning profession. This is also when you will have the best opportunities to rub shoulders with professionals from all over the state. REGISTER HERE. $50 per day or $150 for the full conference.

SIGN UP TO VOLUNTEER

There's still room to volunteer on Monday (10/24) and Tuesday (10/25)! Volunteers help run the regular conference sessions and special events!

QUALIFY FOR REIMBURSEMENT

If you register for the entire conference and volunteer for at least 8 hours, you will be reimbursed $80 of your $150 student conference registration fee. After the reimbursement, you are looking at a $545 value for only $70!

REACH OUT FOR SUPPORT

Reach out to your university program administrators and graduate student governments for financial support for your registration fees. They may have funds budgeted for this purpose.

NETWORK NETWORK NETWORK!

Suit up and have your resumes and business cards in hand! Many companies will be actively recruiting at this event. Meander through the Exhibit Hall and ask company representatives what they have been working on lately!
